OHIO COAL MINER'S HOME DYNAMITED

Attack Made in Center of Strike Area Village Shaken

By The Associated Press
CINCINNATI, O., May 10.—The home of a working coal miner at Adena, near here, was dynamited early today, but the miner, Clarence Pennman, his wife and son escaped in time.

The explosion, attributed by officials to an attempt to get rid of miners working a "somers mine" of the Goodpastor, Tice and Rubber company, blew windows out of the house and forced the village but caused no serious damage.

One stick of dynamite that failed to explode was found near a large hole torn in the ground by the explosion.

Pennman and his son went to work at the mine shortly after the dynamite bomb was set off. Eighty men employed in the Somers mine live in Adena.

Ohio National guardsmen with headquarters in Cadiz, Ohio, recently had maintained an outpost in Adena. The only military contact the village now has is an armored military car that patrols the high ways and has radio communication with the Cadiz headquarters.

GRILL HUSBAND IN SLAYING

Holmes County Man Stoutly Denies Blame in Death of Wife.

PROLONGED QUIZ FAILS
Police Attach Significance to Blood-Stained Shirt Found in Home.

By The Associated Press
MILLERSBURG, O., May 10.—Efforts to solve the murder of Mrs. Gertrude Meeker, 18, whose body was found in a small stream near here yesterday, failed today on a prolonged questioning of her husband, Herbert, 21.

Although Meeker's automobile was found blood-stained near the body and a similarly discolored shirt was discovered in his Wayne county home, he insisted he knew nothing of the crime.

The body with skull crushed was found early yesterday by a Holmes county farm hand. The automobile was partly demolished against a tree. Officers said it appeared to have been wickedly pushed.

Sticks to Story
Meeker adhered to his story that his wife disappeared from his home Sunday night along with the automobile and $5. He reported them missing yesterday morning about the same time that the killing was discovered.

The young husband and wife had been separated about six months and had been reunited only a few hours.

Last night's questioning of Meeker was suspended after twenty hours when his answer to every question became absolutely not.

Earlier the husband was taken from the Holmes county jail to view the body at a morgue. Approaching the casket he played a handkerchief to his eyes and then collapsed. Finally he faced the form however saying: "Gottsche got up and tell them who did it."

Meeker denied he had driven the automobile to Millersburg, two hours before the body was found, but a gasoline station attendant here identified him as having purchased gasoline at that time.

For the last several months Mrs. Meeker had been working in Cleveland and living part of the time with her mother, Mrs. James M. Gowan, at Oak Hill. The young wife returned to the farm home Sunday.

TWO COUNTS LISTED BY JURY

Larceny Embezzlement Indictments Returned Against Ex Detective

ALLEGEDLY GOT $104,000

Received Money on Purported Promise to Return Lindbergh Baby

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, May 10.—Gaston B. Means, self-styled intermediary in the Lindbergh kidnapping, was indicted today for alleged larceny and embezzlement of $104,000 from Mrs. J. Ward B. McLean, estranged wife of the Washington Post publisher.

The District of Columbia grand jury returned two indictments charging the spectacular ex-con with having fraudulently received and embezzled a $104,000 larceny fund and $4,000 for expenses of the kidnapping.

Means had been employed by Mrs. McLean to effect return of the kidnapped Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr. He had admitted receiving the $104,000 but maintaining that after Mrs. McLean demanded it he gave it to a mysterious stranger who he believed was an authorized representative of Mrs. McLean.

The indictment was returned before Justice James M. Fessenden in the District of Columbia supreme court. Prosecutors are ready for trial but some delay is expected to be sought by the defense. Means was jailed last week after a secret investigation by the justice department following complaint of Mrs. McLean.

Means alleged misappropriation of the $104,000. The indictment charged that on March 7 a week after Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr. was kidnapped, the $104,000 was obtained allegedly on March 18.

Government investigators are still without a substantial clue to what actually happened to the money. The Lindberghs were thus left to find a way out, but with negotiation for which Mrs. McLean says he had let a willing man change to North Carolina and the Mexican border in a way the man to whom he gave the money, "John" himself.

BUDGET OF KENTON SCHOOLS TO BE CUT

Teachers May Be Paid 10 Per Cent Less, $15,000 Shortage Faced

KENTON, May 10.—Faced with the necessity for cutting the school operating costs between $12,000 and $17,000 for the year until Jan. 1, 1935, the Kenton board of education will meet to discuss the budget and determine just where the savings are to be effected.

The local schools operated up to the present time with very little decrease in appropriations must undergo a major reorganization in order to keep them running full time the rest of this year and the first four months of the 1935-36 term.

The budget slashes will have to amount to 10 per cent in nearly every department of the school system. It was estimated that the cut in salaries of teachers will amount to $15,000, which will be made in individual apportioning, except the fund.
